KICK-OFF

WITH ARTHUR APPLETON

Bolton, you remember, pulled us up rather quickly after our euphoric opening day against Q.P.R. and the following mid-week win at Blackburn. They won 3-1, and United's goal was tagged on at the end, Kevin scoring from the spot after Chris Waddle had been brought down. John McGovern, Bolton's manager, was dominating in midfield and Houghton born Tony Henry got a couple of goals, one a penalty. Peter Reid got the other.

John McGovern went to the Wanderers as player-manager in June, to a club, like many, with a debt which is apt to increase week by week. Average attendances are now well below the five figure level. They dropped severely to below ten thousand when Bolton were relegated in 1980.

In spite of this being the 88th League meeting the clubs have not met much in recent years. During Newcastle's long last period in the First Division, Bolton were in the Second and for two seasons in the Third, and when they were promoted to the First in 1978 Newcastle were on their way out.

They met Newcastle early after they'd fallen back in 1980 and ran up a 4-0 score at Burnden Park on the second Saturday. It was a heavy defeat for United who were already shaken and unsure of themselves after their remarkable slump from a promotion place in the first half of the year, and the foreboding it caused was a major factor in the unseating of Bill McGarry before the week was out. Brian Kidd got three in that match and Neil Whatmore the other.

Newcastle won the game here 2-1. Ray Clarke scored in four minutes of time added to the first half, causing Stan Anderson, then Bolton's manager, to make some wry comments. Mike Bennett got his first goal for Bolton, and Mick Martin got a fine winner, his only goal in 1980-81.

Last season Bolton again won their home game. Chris Thompson got the only goal. The game here, on an early February night after the long freeze-up, was won 2-0 by Newcastle. John Trewick got a quick one from the spot after Imre Varadi had been tripped and Ken Wharton got a late second. For most of the time Bolton played with ten men as Mike Doyle in only his second game for them was sent off after thirteen minutes – an unusually early time for a sending-off. Alan Gowling dropped back into defence. As Doyle put through his own goal in his first game for Bolton at Oldham the Saturday before he'll not forget his start with them. Len Cantello, captain in the match here, bought for £350,000 from West Bromwich in 1979 and a regular, was given a free transfer at the end of the season.

The Bolton players proclaimed the Bolton Evening News on the back of their pre-match wear last season, but the paper itself has not been able to reflect football success since the 1978 Second Division Championship. The Wanderers were only two points clear of relegation to the Third in 1980-81, and it was the same last season. Indeed if Bolton had been beaten in their last game, instead of beating Sheffield Wednesday, they'd have gone down not Cardiff, and Wednesday would have been promoted in place of Norwich. That must have been a game.

Clubs won't lie down and die. Tranmere was given a full and poignant near-farewell, in print and on film, then as soon as it was realised that they weren't going to die after all but they were returning to the common state of clubs living somehow, they ceased to be news. One would think that this can't go on happening, that one or two clubs will disappear from the national scene, but we've been saying that long enough. Maybe the Fourth Division re-election trapdoor through which clubs such as Gateshead, Bradford Park Avenue, Barrow and Workington fell into national obscurity, will be the main exit.

Giving evidence before Sir Norman Chester and his committee, Gordon Taylor, the secretary of the Professional Footballers' Association, said players would accept a slight reduction in the number of clubs in the First Division. But the clubs themselves may not accept this. They will ask themselves, will fewer matches really mean a greater aggregate attendance, and I doubt if they'll risk it.

I, of course, hope that the Newcastle players will go to Brighton in good heart because of their results. They could do well there. When the clubs met here in the fifth round in 1930 Brighton were deep in their long years in the old Third Division (South). They were to remain there for a further twenty eight years. United beat them 3-0. The years have put Brighton in the First Division, but the Fifth Round is as far as they've reached in the Cup. That old scoreline will do us, away or up here.

JOHN TREWICK, who had the unluckiest of starts to this season, got the first of two here against Bolton last season.

Behind the Scenes

With Secretary
Russell Cushing

After the completion of the Bolton fixture today season tickets will be reduced in price to take account of matches played to date. Providing there have been no postponements over Christmas and New Year there should now be nine home matches left on the 82/83 Fixture List and the revised season ticket costs will be as follows:

	Adult	Juvenile
West Stand Centre Pavillion	£26.00	£11.00
West Stand 'A' & 'E' Wings	£22.00	£11.00
West Stand Centre Paddock	£16.00	£7.00
East End Centre Section	£28.00	£11.00
East Stand Wing Section	£24.00	£11.00
East Stand Paddock Seating	£18.00	£11.00

If due to postponements there are additional matches to play, there will be a slight adjustment to the above prices. There will be no further reductions in season tickets during the remainder of the season. We start selling tomorrow morning at 10 a.m.

On Saturday next, January 8th we face Brighton and Hove Albion at the Goldstone Ground. A reminder to all supporters intending to travel – although the game is not all ticket we strongly advise that you should purchase a ticket from St. James' Park prior to departure. At the time of writing this article seat tickets, price £4.00, and ground tickets at £2.50 were still available. The St. James' Park Ticket Office is open 10 a.m.- 4 p.m. during the remainder of this week.

In the event of a draw at Brighton the replay is arranged for Wednesday 12th January at Newcastle, kick off 7.30 p.m. The replay would not be all ticket but seat and West Stand Centre Paddock Tickets are being printed in readiness for sale, in the first instance to season ticket holders only. Full details will be advertised in the January 8th issue of the Evening Chronicle and the 'Pink' but provisionally we envisage that season ticket holders would have to apply for a ticket on Sunday 9th and Monday 10th, with a general sale from the Tuesday morning. If there is a replay then our home Central League fixture with Sheffield Wednesday due to be played on the 12th, will have to be re-arranged. I'm sure you will all be pleased to read that St. James' Park is shortly to have a new public address system. No longer will the regular visiting sides sound like a bunch of foreigners when announced over the tannoy.

No longer will Blaydon Raves sound like the Portugese national anthem. And, more grateful even than you, will be regular announcer Alan Dryden who wishes it to be known that he is in his forties, not his Sixties.

How's this for youthful dedication....and perhaps a message to all the youngsters for this New Year? Young Tony Hayton is an apprentice schoolboy with United, and in order to play in a recent fixture at Rotherham, he had to be, quite literally, on his bike at the crack of dawn. At 6 a.m. on a freezing cold morning, he jumped onto the pillion seat of his Dad's bike, and headed for Newcastle from north of Ashington, to meet up with the team coach. He just made it, the team coach headed off and got as far as Ripon when the boys learned that the match was off. Nothing particularly unusual about that, I hear you say. Except that young Tony still had a smile on his face after a very fruitless day!

A STAR IS REBORN

The Newcastle Breweries Limited is back on the North East scene. The famous 'Blue Star' is to stand alone once more after twenty years as part of the Scottish & Newcastle Breweries Group.

The decision to trade in the North East of England as 'Newcastle Breweries' follows three years of decentralisation designed to tackle the changing pattern of the beer and leisure markets. To come closer to the social and drinking requirements of a highly discriminating North East.

The rebirth of 'Newcastle Breweries' gives the region its own major brewery company with a greater degree of autonomy and flexibility than ever before.

All of this, coupled with a fine range of products from both sides of the border, means that Newcastle Breweries is now equipped to give customers what they want in terms of best service, best beers and a greater involvement with their own brewery.

With a local chairman and board of directors making the decisions which affect the North East trading area from Tweed-to-Tyne-to-Tees, it is now time for action, time for change. Time for a new local identity. Watch out for the famous Blue Star emblem in the revised company namestyle — the top of the star making the 'A' in the word Newcastle.

Watch out for the company's dray fleet of platform lorries, tankers and vans, turning out in a new livery with white vehicles featuring the Blue Star and for the managed pubs becoming 'Newcastle Inns'.

But it's much more than simply a change of name. The entire company has been re-organised to heighten efficiency. The wholesale side, dealing with Clubs and Free Trade, can now work more closely with the retail side covering Pubs. Expertise from both sectors can be utilised for the common good — and that includes every over-eighteen in the region who puts lip to glass.

Newcastle Breweries will provide a much closer involvement in the business, community and social life of the area. The company has always played a major role in the North East and as Newcastle Breweries will be working for the benefit of the region.

More than 8,000 people are employed by the Breweries.

This number plus those employed in all the various service industries used by the company indicates its importance to the region's well-being.

Operating more than 700 pubs in the area and supplying thousands of clubs and free trade customers, Newcastle Breweries makes a vital contribution to the economic stability of a zone hard hit by unemployment.

Newcastle Breweries has confidence in the North East — and plans for positive company investment. The Breweries has always 'poured' money back into the area which 'pours' its products and this is to be continued.

There is also a planned programme of customer involvement in activities for both pub and clubland, a programme of support for local community and social events as well as a number of trade promotions.

What's happening at Newcastle Breweries is good for the customer, good for trade and good for the North East. Newcastle Breweries is set to become the region's top star attraction.

BOLTON

Jim McDonagh

(Goalkeeper) In his second spell with Bolton. Jim Rejoined the Wanderers during the summer of 1981 from Everton after a season at Goodison Park. The former Rotherham Keeper was a member of Bolton's Second Division Championship Winning Side in 1978. Republic of Ireland International.

Gerry McElhinney

(Defender) Signed from Distillery at the beginning of the 80/81 season, a former Gaelic footballer and amateur boxer, who made his debut for the Wanderers soon after signing. An aggressive, enthusiastic defender who just failed to make the Northern Ireland World Cup squad.

Paul Jones

(Defender) Re-signed for Wanderers within weeks of being released on a free transfer during the summer. Paul is a quick tackling defender who has been a member of the Under-23 and full England squads. He is a commanding player in the air as well as on the ground and has a habit of scoring vital goals. Can also play at full back and is Wanderers longest serving player.

Peter Reid

Mike Doyle

(Defender) Veteran former Manchester City and England defender, joined the Wanderers in January from Stoke City for a "nominal fee". Doyle made a dramatic start to his Bolton days conceding an own goal on his debut and being sent off in his second game, but he brought a steadying influence to the Bolton line-up and his composure has been a tremendous asset.

Simon Farnworth

(Goalkeeper) Simon has shown enough talent and composure in his formative years to persuade the Wanderers to appoint an understudy to Jim McDonagh and release the highly experienced Dennis Peacock who returned to Doncaster.

Tony Henry

(Full Back/Midfield) Signed for £125,000 from Manchester City. Tony was one of the unsung heroes of Manchester City's revival last season, he also came on as substitute in Manchester City's F.A. Cup Final appearance in 1981. Versatile player who is bound to be a useful acquisition to the Club.

David Hoggan

(Midfield) Joined Bolton from Tynecastle Boys Club, Edinburgh as an apprentice in November 1977 and signed full professional forms in August 1979. Made his League debut in the First Division at Bristol City in April 1980. Won International recognition with the Scottish Under-21's Squad.

Mike Bennett

(Defender) A member of the successful England Youth Squad which won the 1980 European Youth Championships in East Germany, Mick is quickly establishing himself as one of the most promising defenders in the game. Has played at full back and midfield. Bolton born, he joined the Wanderers as a schoolboy.

Chris Thompson

(Striker/Midfield) A speedy attacker with plenty of skill. Chris joined the Wanderers from school. He became an apprentice and then went on to sign full Professional forms in July 1977. Has represented England at Youth level. He was the Club's leading scorer last season.

WHERE ARE THEY NOW....

That famous Good Friday promotion clinching meeting with Bolton before a 59,960 crowd back in 1965 is a well and truly memorable story. Remember we were victorious by 2-0, the events of which I'll not relate again, they have been well told already, but I wonder where United's eleven heroes are now. The side was:

Marshall; Craig, Clark; Anderson, McGrath, Iley; Robson, Hilley, Cummings, Penman, Knox.

Goalkeeper Gordon Marshall, the big English born 'Scot' now lives in the Edinburgh area running a newsagents shop and was until recently coaching Scottish non-league outfit Newtongrange Star. His son, a 'keeper also, is on Rangers books. Full-backs David Craig and Frank Clark so long the back two for United have gone on contrasting careers. Craig, after retiring in November 1978 now pursues business interests in the region, one of which is a milk delivery outfit while Frank Clark of course is still with Ken Knighton, now at Orient. Newcastle's all important half-back line of that season, Anderson-McGrath Iley, have all tasted

And what of Bolton's side? I couldn't say what they are all doing now, that is except for a trio; Wyn Davies, our Fairs Cup stalwart, Francis Lee and Gordon Taylor. Davies resides in the Manchester area, as does Lee, now a more than successful businessman, and of course little Gordon Taylor is now the PFA representative. For the record their side was:

Hopkinson; Hartle, Farrimond; Rimmer, Edwards, Hatton; Lee, Hill, Davies, Bromley, Taylor.

Famous names from a famous game. I can still recollect the scene at twenty to five as vivid as yesterday....the pitch invasion on the final whistle... the singing of the Blaydon Races led by Stan Anderson and his team.....the battles to grab a piece of the United shirts as they were thrown to the crowds. Great stuff. Come Good Friday 1983 and I wonder if we'll be in the same frame of mind!

football management too. Stan Anderson was boss at Burnden Park, home of our visitors today, until last year, while Jim Iley has things well in charge at Bury....last week they were top of Division Four. Centre-half John McGrath has proved also a good manager after graduating with Lawrie McMenemy at Southampton. He's doing well at Port Vale, last season they were in trouble when he joined but now they are pushing for the top of the Fourth Division too.

'Pop' Robson is still with us, very much so, at Chelsea and Scottish inside-forward, Dave Hilley, the man with the delicate frame and touch is teaching in a West End City School. Centre-forward Bobby Cummings, the Ashington lad, after leaving Gallowgate in October 1965 had good spells at Darlington and Hartlepool before heading for South Africa and the Port Elizabeth club. The two Scots on the left wing, Willie Penman and Tommy Knox are I believe back in Scotland. Penman after a long stay with Swindon and Walsall had a brief spell in Ireland while Knox after playing in the lower divisions ended his career with St. Mirren.

west country to perhaps feel the victim of the Merseyside-Manchester success story over the past couple of decades. Once Lancashire boasted clubs that completely over-shadowed with regularity Liverpool, Everton and the two Manchester giants - teams like Blackburn, Burnley and today's visitors Bolton. Now though its a different tale, all suffer drastically from being in the shadow of their giant neighbours. Perhaps though the likes of the Wanderers will rise again, a club with tradition, seven times finalists in the F.A. Cup.

ANY QUESTIONS.....

Mr. S. Howard asks about Terry McDermotts early days at Newcastle, "When did he first play and score for United and when did he leave for Liverpool. Also how many times did he appear?"

Terry joined United in January 1973 from Bury for a £25,000 fee and made his first appearance in a black'n white jersey against Manchester United in March 1973 as substitute. His first full game was the following week at home to Chelsea. He first found the back of the net at White Hart Lane in the final League tussle of the season. Liverpool paid £170,000 to Newcastle for Terry's services in November 1974, all told he turned out on 68 League and Cup occasions for United during his first spell hitting 9 goals.

Michael Little of Denton Burn, Newcastle requests clarification of the attendance at the United v Swansea fixture of 1939, the game before War broke out.

Well Michael, although I actually have three different attendances from three different sources for his match, 50,000, 17,000 and 14,000 I think I can safely say that the 17,000 figure will be more realistic. Although United did get 50,000 gates quite often for those days in the Second Division the game hardly warranted that size of attendance especially with the mood of the country. Being an unofficial League fixture the Clubs records cannot verify the crowd definately.

Master P. Wallace queries the last visit to Gallowgate of team of the moment, Liverpool. "What was the score and can you publish the Reds side, also was Keegan and McDermott playing?"

Liverpool were last on Tyneside on New Years Eve 1977, they won easily by 2-0 before a 36,456 crowd. The two teams were:

United: Carr; Natrass, Barker; Hudson, McCaffery, Blackhall; Barrowclough, Burns, Larnach, Craig, Robinson. Sub. Martin.

Liverpool: Clemence; Neal, Jones; Thompson, Kennedy, Hughes, Dalglish, McDermott, Heighway, Fairclough, Callaghan. Sub. Johnson.

As you will see K.K. wasn't playing, he was then at Hamburg replaced in the Liverpool side by Kenny Dalglish. Keegan's last visit in a Liverpool shirt was the season before in September 1976 when United won 1-0 through a Paul Cannell diving header.

WYN DAVIES, a major threat to United in a tight promotion battle of 1965 with Bolton.
